Presents*

The Howard Shield of 1964

Howard Shield Staff

With the changing of the seasons comes the forming of your futures. As you look through this book and its pages, you will recall activities, triumphs, work, and pleasures each season brings. Every leaf that falls, every snowflake, each ray of sunshine, brings memories and inspiration to each of your lives.

If this volume preserves any past experiences that have been meaningful in your lives, our work has not been in vain.

Principal

Congratulations, Class of 1964. You have achieved a goal to which you have aspired for many years. In graduating from high school, you have earned the feeling of accomplishment that you have at this time.

Your performances are now recorded in permanent records and transcripts. Your future is a matter of prognostication. Many and varied will be your lifetime pursuits and successes. Cherish well the bonds of friendship formed during your years at Howard High. Remember the heritage of rights and privileges that we enjoy in our American way of life.

The problems of present day living in an everchanging world are yours to deal with in order that future generations may enjoy at least as much of life's goodness as you have enjoyed.

Preserve in your heart a special warm spot for our own Howard County Senior High School.

Omar J. Jones

Dedication

We dedicate the '64 Howard Shield to Mr. Frank Lupashunski, a man who continually dedicates himself to his students . . .

Mr. Lupe, our senior advisor, POD teacher, and golf coach, is one of the busiest teachers on our faculty. He works throughout the year with our senior activities, and this year he has taken on a separate project to help restore prayers in our public schools. Much work and effort have gone into his Plea for Prayer, and Mr. Lupe has given more than enough of himself for us.

We, the class of 1964, extend our fondest wishes to Mr. Lupe, our teacher and our friend, a truly dedicated man.

Vice Principals

TO THE CLASS OF '64

Best wishes to the Class of 1964. I hope that your future will hold the same spirit of challenge, intellectual pursuit, fine sportsmanship, good fellowship, and spiritual understanding that you have portrayed so frequently to your classmates, fellow students, and faculty in your three years at Howard.

I desire for each of you the best that life can bring—not particularly wealth, but love, health, security, and above all else, happiness in whatever your line of endeavor.

SENIOR SONG

Oh, Howard High, the days have gone so quickly by,
We soon shall part, our separate ways to go;
But friendships true will last and last forever,
And mem'ries of the joys we shared with you.

And when we meet again some sunny morrow,
Though high school years have faded fast away,
We'll look back to the days of our alma mater,
And smile with pride upon the white and blue.

Now we must go with courage ever onward,
And we must face the world as best we can;
For we have many promises to keep,
And miles to go before we sleep.

Junior Class

This year's juniors have been very promising as future seniors. The colors lavender and the white rose rate tops on their list of favorites. They were successful in sponsoring the sweetheart dance, car wash, and the Junior-Senior Prom.

The officers are as follows: Vice President, John Payne; President, Louise Matthews; Secretary, Harriett Dietz; not shown, Treasurer, Brenda Blackwell.

The Underclassmen Rulers

Sophomore Class

The Sophomore class soon joins the routine life of high school days. They show their ability to participate and carry on the school tradition by sponsoring the annual Sophomore Class Party. This year it was called "The Mardi Gras".

The officers are as follows: President, Ray Morris; Vice President, Sue Smith; Historian, Suzanne Hart; Secretary, Pat O'Haro; and Treasurer, Kent Logan.

Future Teachers of America

The FTA is one of Howard's largest organizations. Each year the Lenten season is ended with the April dance sponsored by the FTA. The student body is aided in knowing each other by the FTA directory that is put out each year, which contains the addresses and phone numbers of all the students.

National Honor Society

The Howard Chapter of the National Honor Society has become one of the largest organizations at Howard. Each year, the NHS edits a literary magazine called Depth, which contains writings done by the students. They also visit Shaffer's Convalescent Home each year, and give the residents gifts.

Students who find need for help with their school work may seek the NHS and will receive special tutoring by its members.

Future Nurses of America

The Snow Ball and the Variety Show were a success, thanks to the Future Nurses of America. This year we were honored to have four state officers: Christine Nunn, Elaine Obbink, Sandy Emge, and Carolyn Ash.

Future Homemakers of America

The Future Homemakers have sold corsages at Christmas, have gone to the Smithsonian Institute to see modern houses, and have furnished snacks at the Fashion Show and engaged in many other activities. As the club enlarges, so do the work and accomplishments.

Future Business Leaders of America

The FBLA is only two years old, but already it has shown promise of being a successful organization.

Still small in size, it is ever expanding and shows evidence of becoming one of Howard's largest clubs in the future.

Howard's Chorus

The Howard Chorus, under the direction of Miss Eleanor Dries, is one of our most active groups. They were again the highlight at the Lexington Market at Christmas, and they have produced some of our finest concerts. The Chorus has added to many occasions at Howard this year.

Glee Club

At first this group was a club. Many hours of practice, patience and time, formed a group of harmonizing voices. The future holds a promising place for the Glee Club.

After going down to defeat in their first two games, the varsity squad bounced back to capture the championship title at the Severna Park Invitation Tournament. The team's greatest victory came when they beat Aberdeen 107-51. Willie Thornton scored the one hundredth point, and Fred Fischer scored fifty-three points, making him number one scorer in the metropolitan area.

Pep, enthusiasm, and real school spirit describe this year's varsity squad. They were always busy working on new cheers, bulletin boards, and other activities to arouse the spirit of the students. This was not considered hard work, for they enjoyed every minute of the season. The basketball team had a successful season, and the cheerleaders were always there to spread the spirit of victory.

The successful season of ten wins and three losses was due to the excellent coaching and cooperation among the team. The many hours of practice though tiring proved to be rewarding. This was only the second year Howard has had floats, but this parade proved to be very successful. Four prizes were awarded: the first prize went to the French Club, the Future Nurses won second prize, and the Girls' Athletic Association won third prize.

Chris Nunn reigned over Howard's twelfth annual Homecoming. Her decree of a delightful evening was fulfilled. Students and alumni celebrated this gala occasion at the dance. At the stroke of eleven, all left with warm memories of a terrific day.

YEA, SENIORS!

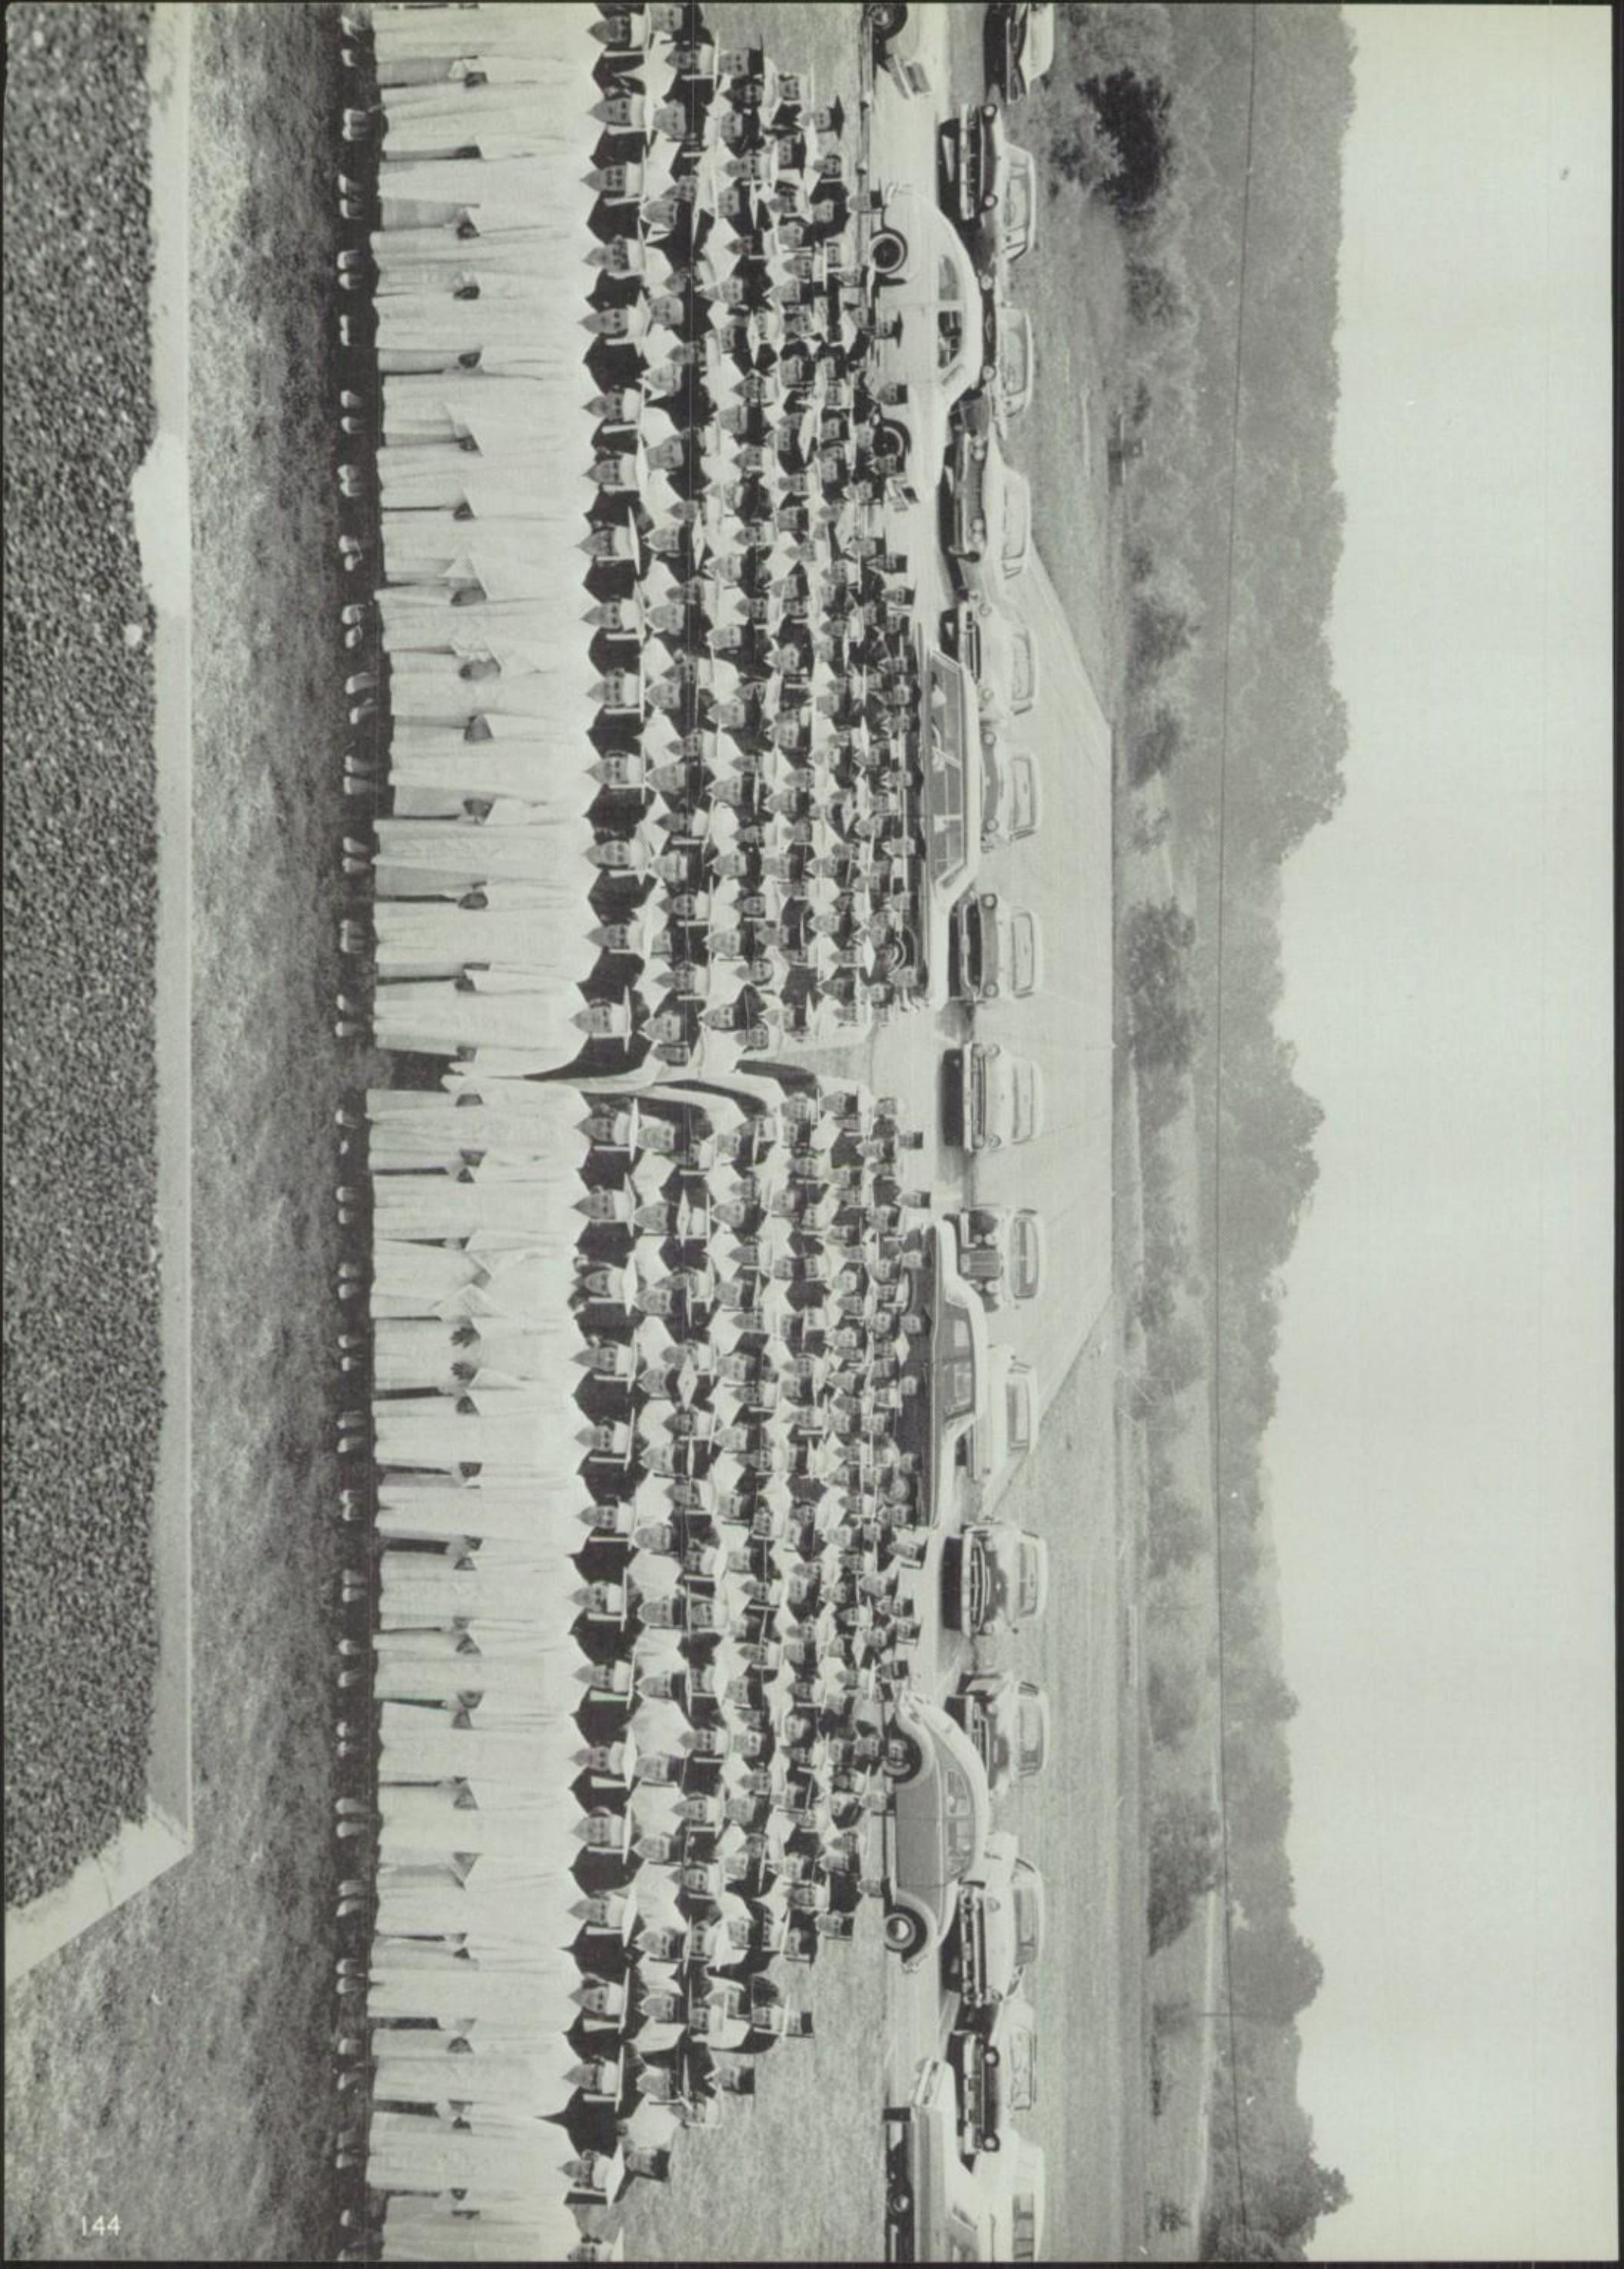

The class of '64 took a trip around the world in miniature at the 1964 World's Fair.

Baccalaureate

The stage is set; the play has begun. Reverend Crooks opened the service with the reading of the psalms. Reverend Seidler read the invocation, and Reverend Conley spoke to the graduating class. The beginning of graduation week was finally here, and each seemed dazed by the glamour of it all. Reverend Thomas closed the services with benediction, and the seniors solemnly began their recession.

Graduation

The climax of a high school senior's life has finally arrived. Graduation is the end of a long glamorous week that will long remain in the memories of those present. Tonight will be the last time for fellow students to meet together. The Class of '64 is one of the largest classes to graduate from Howard, which comprised of 336 graduates.

The guest speaker of the evening was Senator Brewster, but because of unavoidable circumstances, could not attend. Howard County's Senator Clark did the honor of reading Senator Brewster's speech to the class.

Superintendent John E. Yingling presented the diplomas. Speeches were delivered by Fayette Marsh, Valedictorian, and Bill Woods, Salutatorian.
